I have read and understand the rules that apply in completing the scholarship forms. I have completed the application form to the best of my knowledge and believe that it is true and complete. I further agree to the terms and conditions of the EGUMC Scholarship Committee. If selected, I understand that I may have to read my essay to the church congregation on a selected Sunday morning or other event. I also consent to having my name, photograph or image or quotes from my essay in newsletters or web pages of the church.
